Yonkers, N.Y. April 28th 49

Dear Sir:

Leaving Yonkers tomorrow, let me thank you once more for all your kindness and hospitality.

Prof. Knapp introduced me the other day to Prof.
Viner and the day before yesterday to the Director of the Smithsonian. Things are settled in the terms discussed by us in London.

Though Prof. Knapp helped us in a most efficient way the only thing missing until now is the permission of the Secretary to take some objects of our collection along.

I am looking forward to come back to your beautiful country and to start my work on the first of July.

With the kindest regards to Miss Gouges and yourself from us both

Yours very sincerely

Santiago April 28 II 49

Dear Sir:

Leaving Santiago tomorrow, let me thank you once more for all your kindness and hospitality.

Prof. Asenjo introduced me the other day to Prof. Vivanco and the day before yesterday to the director of the Beneficencia. Things are resulted in the terms discussed by us in Concepción.

Though Prof. Asenjo helped us in a most efficient way the only thing missing until now is the permission of the Aduana to take some objects of own household along.

I am looking forward to come back to your beautiful country and to visit my [illegible] in the visit of july

With the kindness regards to Missis González and
